WM. MARSHALL BULLITT

For Congress

Ninth District—J. G. IRELAND.

Judge Court of Appeals.

Third District—JAMES DENTON.

The Millionaires' Club in the Upper House of the National Congress, has been dwindling slowly for some time, and it will dwindle some more when Senator Bullitt relieves Senator Camden at Washington March 4th.

It will be interesting to watch the many thousand Kentucky laborers who are out of a job rushing to the polls early on the morning of November 3rd to register their endorsement of the Administration at Washington.

The Democrats promised to enlarge the foreign markets for our products, but we sold foreigners during the first ten months of their tariff law $151,000,000 less than we did under a similar period of the Payne law which they denounced.

The Democratic text book for 1914 under the caption of "Let the Republicans Answer," asked "What is your program, if returned to power?" That's easy. We would start a few billions of new idle capital, to courting through the channels of trade; we would start several thousand idle factories to operating on full time; we would put two and a half million idle laborers to work on full time at good wages; we would put ten million hungry people on full rations and make everybody happy. At least, that is what we were doing before you came into power.

A WARLESS "WAR TAX."

Mr. Longworth hit the nail on the head. Levying a war tax when there is no war is a four card draw, an absolute blind.—Commercial Tribune.

"COME OUT YE LUBBER AND GET LICKED?"

Whether or not credence is to be attached to the report of a fleet of warships steaming along the dish coast to the entrance to the Baltic from the th Sea and the assumption that it is a British edition, there is every reason to expect some huge in the British naval program and greater activity in place of watchful waiting for the German fleet to come out and get smashed.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WOMEN STAND THE BRUNT OF WAR.

It is not only the women of the Red Cross Association who are proving themselves to be relieving actors on the line of battle, but the women who are left at home are also taking up the work of men. Women of France have taken the places of brothers, fathers and husbands in the vineyards and the wheat fields. Women of Paris have taken men's places in the stores, on the street cars and even doing police service. Women in Germany have stepped in where the men have stepped out, and the business of Berlin proceeds as it did before the outbreak of the war.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

DON'T WANT THE EATS CUT OFF.

The movement to call off all banquets in this country while the war rages in Europe is not well founded. We can afford to rejoice over the blessings of peace and festivity might help to dispel some of the gloom that the horrors of the conflict spreads. But if the plan were put on the basis of economy and the prevention of needless expenditures during a severe financial period, it would be a wholly different matter.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

BURDEN WHERE IT BELONGS.

When a man abuses his wife or family so as to incur a legal penalty he is usually locked up in jail. That is none too bad for him, but it is more than a dependent wife and children deserve. He can not earn anything for their support in jail, consequently they suffer, probably more than if he had not been molested in his abuses by the law.

Wisconsin has visualized its recognition of this inequality by the enactment of a law that compels such a man to work for the support of his family instead of lying idle in prison. Here, for example is a man convicted of attacking his wife. The State sets him at work at wages, all of which are turned over to the wife, by whom in reality, the man is virtually employed for the time being. Should he violate the terms of his employment he will be subject to a penitentiary sentence. That, to be sure, would end his wage-earning. But what man with common sense is going to violate such conditions with the penitentiary staring him in the face.

Put it down, if you will, as another of Wisconsin's freak laws, you may not deny that it tends to place the burden where it belongs—on the rascal of a man, instead of his innocent wife and family.—Omaha Bee.

Emperor Bill is the sure-enough bull in the European china shop.

That 18,000 majority by which Gov. Willson carried the State just a few years ago, is an ugly scarecrow on the thorny road of Kentucky Democracy.

THE DOCTOR'S STORY.

Secretary Harry E. Smith, of the Board of Park Commissioners, knows a lot about doctors.

Harry says that at 3 o'clock one morning a doctor was awakened from a comfortable bed to answer an urgent call at the bedside of a patient, twelve miles distant.

The weather was bitter cold and the physician was almost frozen when he reached the sick man.

He was surprised to find the sufferer up and dressed and walking the floor.

"What's the trouble?" he asked.

"Oh, doctor, I don't know," said the patient.

"Are you suffering pain?"

"No, but I awakened with a feeling somehow that I was going to die soon and I sent for you."

The physician looked grim. "Let me feel your pulse," he commanded.

The patient extended his arm.

"Show me your tongue."

He opened his mouth and stuck out his tongue.

"Have you a lawyer?"

The patient paled. "Oh, doctor," he whimpered. "You don't think that I should make my will?"

"Send for your lawyer. Have you a minister?"

"Y-y-es, do you think I need him too, doctor?"

"Send for him. Have you an undertaker?"

The patient was visibly trembling. "Oh, doctor," he moaned. "Do you think that the end then is so near?"

"Not by a thundering sight," exploded the physician. "but I don't like to feel that I am the only fool in the county."—Louisville Times.

BAD OPERATION

AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me.

One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

TRENCHES ARE FULL

Of Polluted Water in Which Are Corpses, Roussett Asserts.

Paris.—Colonel Roussett, famous military expert, writing in La Liberte, says:

"The character of the fighting in France is about to undergo a change. The trenches are full of polluted water beneath which lie heaps of rotten corpses."

"The Germans are being forced to quit the trenches and the great battle therefore is about to assume a more open character."
